For many, life has become about "doing for everyone else". Keeping everyone happy, and "shoulding" on yourself. This can result in personal frustration, feeling lost & burned out. The fun and excitement of life eludes us. There is another way!

Take back your power! Be free of other peoples expectations and opinions....
"What other people think of me is non of my business" (Eleanor Roosevelt)
Learn not to take things personal and truly stop caring
"what the neighbors think"

At this camp you will discover:

- Early conditioning and how it all began.
- How it is affecting your life now.
- New ways of looking at your world.
- Prioritizing your day, to your highest good.
- How to rekindle your dreams and desires.
- How to be #1 in your life.

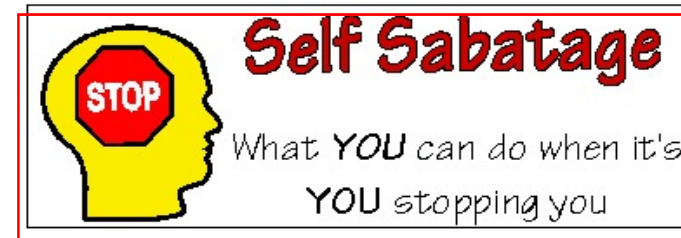

"Thoes who matter do not mind and those who mind do not matter!"

This intensive is highly experiential allowing you to 'practice' and own your personal power and presence. Realize the gift that you are.
